

A surviving unit shows the deepest June reduction in the fleet — the dip carries no information about cessation

